

Light the BoB

100%diy. punk-rock-sci-fi-it-com-duo

BIOGRAPHY AND OTHER USELESS INFO ABOUT US:

Duo (bass and drums), born february 2009 in Ostia, between iodine and ZK squatt from many previous experiences ranging from electronic music (both are members of the Radical Fiction project since 1993, hardcore punk (Virus X), to country (Discountry) to metal (I Pesante). LTB seek senselessness of music, but also the sense of no music, but also music that has recently lost ... the genre is rather vague, sounds tough, heavy guitars without guitars and drumfills a gogo ... lyrics seem to make sense, but hidden fragments of life, deep sociological theme is closely and reflections. In a recent interview Mr. Spock said he felt very attuned to the logic behind the songs of LTB.

"Lighining Bolt are strong... but Light the BoB have the Force..."

Obi Wan Kenobi (Jedi Music)

Few frills, quick and concise enough messy, hostile to copyright, not enough professional, punk, absolutely against to the commodification of music and expression in general, for the free flow of information, for to spread D.I.Y. as attitudune, squatters, squatt supporters, radicals, but also down to earth, not fossilized, going around, no star, no buy no sale, cheesy sounds, determined, in the middle, but sometimes the side, open to music, polyinstrumentalists by poor talent but full of commitment, will and heart...

The reference points ranging from Lightning Bolt to No Means No, Evan Dando, the Hanson Brothers, via the Ramones, Afrirampo, Startrek and Tenacious D...

Most often the Light the BoB avoid eating meat.

They are also used to go around by a brown Westfalia Camper said "Donkey" and the '96 Honda CBR 600.

LIGHT THE BOB ARE:

Shakiro aka Sek Skywalker aka Sekketto (bass + vocals + sound eng);
Anastacio aka Obi Iwan Kenobi aka Thorfinn (drums + vocals + driving).
